STUDENT ART & WRITING AWARDS PROGRAM:

GFWC Treadwell Community Improvement Club (TCIC) contacted local schools to offer students the opportunity to participate in the GFWC Arts Contest and GFWC Writing Contest. Each student who participated received a personal invitation to attend a ceremony recognizing their work. TCIC hosted this ceremony in the Kellogg Community Educational Center. An Event was created on the Club Facebook page, inviting all community members to congratulate our area students. Students were introduced by District Writing and Arts Chairs Deb Tuthill and Donna Briggs, respectively, and given their placement ribbon from the club, district, and state (when applicable). Writers were invited to read their work to the audience. Artists work was on display for all to view. TCIC donated $50.00 to the American Mural Project in honor of the arts at the conclusion of this program. Refreshments were donated by club members.

ART PROGRAM ADVOCACY:

TCIC Club Member, Donna Briggs, wrote a compelling letter to the Delaware Academy School Board advocating for a budget which continues to include a strong Art Program. This letter was prompted when a consideration was being reviewed to remove 1/2 of an Art Position. The board reconsidered their budget and restored the art position for the following school year.

SWEET ADELINES CONCERT PROGRAM:

TCIC worked with the Treadwell United Methodist Church to host a City of the Hills Sweet Adelines holiday concert for the community. This a cappella women's chorus entertained with songs both new and old and invited the over thirty community members in attendance to join in singing popular carols. Club members donated refreshments, which were provided after the concert.

COMMUNITY CAROLING:

TCIC organized a community caroling night, where club and community members joined together to deliver holiday packages to the elderly and shut-in members of the community. Nine carolers took to the streets, with lots of holiday spirit, to bless eleven homes with the gifts and music. They sang at least two songs at each home and were thanked with joyful tears and vibrant smiles.
