Parliamentary procedures are highlighted at each meeting to ensure that meetings run smoothly and without conflict. Individual personal leadership skills are enhanced by asking each member to chair a program/project or be responsible for an activity. Members have the opportunity to chair/participate on a specific program committee, an annual project, or the Program Committee. Members were given a hand-out on the "Top 10 Leadership Qualities" to review during a monthly meeting.

Members are given information on club responsibilities in the club manual; as well as bylaws and procedures in the club handbook.

An overview of the history of GFWC was presented during the annual membership dinner.

Club officer's registration expenses are paid for when attending district and state meetings.

Club members hold the following Central District positions:

President: Louise Hebbard
Treasurer: Nancy Barnes
Writing Contest Chair: Debbie Tuthill
Art Contest Chair: Donna Briggs

Club members hold the following GFWC-NY positions:

Spiritual Care Advisor: Donna Briggs

Six club members attended both the central district meetings and the GFWC-NY Convention. Two club members attended the Mid-Atlantic Region Conference. A press release was submitted and ran in three local newspapers about our club women's participation at MAR.

TCIC members formed a committee to review and revise their by-laws this year. This committee instituted the use of a club handbook, which is a compilation of all the bylaws and resolutions for the club.
